As you know, our mission to offer free concerts to underserved communities truly comes into focus around the holiday season. In December we will once again have the privilege of performing at homeless shelters where we get to meet and interact with people who are in desperate need for human connection. These performances are the most rewarding for us and we could not do this good work without your support.

As our fall season comes to a close, we were so pleased to see such full and wonderfully attentive audiences at our performances. Thank you to those of you who came out to hear our music. We enjoyed spending time with you, as always! This fall we performed free concerts in the Montavilla and St. Johns neighborhoods, and performed for the senior retirement community at Hawthorne Gardens in SE Portland. We have a few more performances before the year ends - our first performance in a prison (Larch Correctional Center) and our second community outreach concert in Lake Oswego.

We also have an exciting spring program planned emphasizing music by American composers like Bernstein, Copland, Gershwin, Rachmaninoff, Price, Ljova and more..

And this coming April we will be offering our first children's concert – "Music and Illustration: Bringing Stories to Life – with Author/Illustrator Brett Helquist".

Brett is well known for his stunning illustrations, most notably, Lemony Snicket's, A Series of Unfortunate Events. He and our violinist/composer, Regina Sadowski, have collaborated to bring his books to life with original music and narration. We will be performing his books, Roger the Jolly Pirate and The Grumpy Goat. Brett will be traveling all the way from NYC to join us. We hope you can attend this special event – the kids will love it!

Thank you so much for your support and Happy Holidays to you all!
