Enriching the Community

Music enriches the lives of individuals and builds stronger communities. We strive to reach communities with less access to quality classical performances.

During the fall of 2015 we enjoyed performing in four Portland Neighborhoods with our series of free concerts. More than 200 people came to enjoy the performances! This is what we have heard from you about our recent concerts:

"My 4 yr old granddaughter and I attended the WONDERFUL free Portland Chamber Music at St Marks tonight and my granddaughter, young as she is LOVED IT! I would never have had this opportunity to share this classical music with her at such a young age had it not been the notification on NEXT DOOR! THANK YOU NEXT DOOR AND PORTLAND CHAMBER MUSIC for amazing a 4 yr old....who knows the affect for the future for her!"

And:

"I went last night, thinking I would sit in the back row and leave if it wasn't my cup of tea. I stayed for the entire concert - it was very entertaining and the musicians very good! Thanks, Portland Chamber Music and St Mark's Church!"

Thank you!!

Portland Chamber Music Newsletter

November 2015

While attending an event this month, our Artistic Director received a card with a poem dedicated to Portland Chamber Music. We wanted to share this beautiful gift with you with our gratitude to the poet.

By Madeline Adams

*There is a place inside
Where the music abides.
The rhythm of life's river pulsing
To touch the world,
Touch the strings in every heart.
From one note, one chord,
To one movement,
The symphony of empathy,
The joining of the parts.
You have stepped out on stage
Yet you do not step alone.
Close your eyes, breathe deep,
And listen,
And you will always hear the way home.*
