

Portland Chamber Music Newsletter - Fall 2019

Greetings music lovers!

Fall season is upon us and we are in the full swing of rehearsals, preparing a rich program of fan favorites alongside some more obscure works. We strive to present a diverse selection of music, giving your soul a chance to escape into the mysterious world of music. This season's program will include emotionally stirring music from Clara Schumann, Dmitri Shostakovich, Mozart, Bach, and others.

Staying true to our mission, we will have free chamber music concerts this season in different neighborhoods throughout the Portland Metro Area. We are excited to perform for the people of West Hills Village Senior Residence for the first time as well as continuing our homeless shelter concerts. We plan on visiting the shelters throughout the year. While we enjoy playing during the holiday season, we realize that these communities often feel forgotten about most of the time, so why not spread the love of music?

As we have shared with many of you, last year we had an amazing concert for the men at the Larch Corrections Center in Washington. It was incredibly inspiring, so much so, that we are planning a repeat performance for them, as well as two other prisons. As you might realize, there are not a lot of funding opportunities to bring music to prisoners. We need your help! If you feel passionate about our mission and want to be a part of touching the souls of those that need it most, please donate now! It would mean the world to us to have the support of our treasured audience members and donors.

Please see our list of upcoming concerts - the first of which will be at the Montavilla Farmer's Market on September 29th. Come on down and have a listen while you get your goodies! We look forward to connecting with you soon. Thank you for your support!
