Newsletter - Winter 2020

Hello Music Lovers!

We hope that your New Year is off to a great start! This past fall season was filled with wonderful music for us, from the perfection of Mozart to the haunting beauty of Shostakovich. Thank you to those of you who were able to attend our free neighborhood concerts! We loved connecting with our generous audiences in Montavilla, South Tabor and St. Johns.

This spring we will be performing in the Vernon and Forest Grove neighborhoods, as well as Astoria, home to our fabulous clarinetist, Jennifer Crockett. We are also excited to announce a very special concert on the 26th of this month, "Bright Voices of the Darkest Hour: Music and the Holocaust" at the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education. This concert will feature the music of composers who perished in the Holocaust as well as those who survived. It has been emotional, to say the least, preparing for this concert. It serves as a remembrance to this tragic time in history and reminds us that the human spirit is boundless. (Please see below for details.)

In other news, we had a very successful online fundraiser for our upcoming series of prison concerts. Your donations are greatly appreciated. If you did not get a chance to help bring music to those most in need, you can do so here. Thank you for your support!

Musically Yours,
PCM (Anya, Jennifer, Lynda, Regina, Jon, Jonah, Michael and Deborah)
